Family Process Grant Awards Applied Practice Grant

Early Scholars Applied Practice, Dissertation and Research Grant Awards

The purpose of the FPI Applied Practice Grant is to provide support for Early Career Professionals (ECP) to propose activities to:

- (a) Enhance individual practitioner or systems proficiency
- (b) Advance diversity and social justice and/or
- (c) Support the development, implementation, evaluation or dissemination of innovative activities related to the FPI vision and mission.

FPI Vision Statement:

Family Process Institute is an independent, multidisciplinary, transnational organization dedicated to developing and exchanging new theory, research, applied practice, and policy related to families and other systems. Grounded in a commitment to social justice, Family Process Institute aims to be an independent voice for scholarly work in the field and to shape future directions for research and practice.

FPI Mission Statement:

- We oversee the journal, Family Process, and ensure the coordination of the operations between Family Process and our publishing partner, Wiley/Blackwell
- Family Process Institute develops and implements initiatives integrated with and separate from the Journal that promote the field of systemic theory, practice, research, and advocacy through:
 - Dissemination of knowledge regarding theory, practice, and research
 - Dissemination of training
 - Career development for young practitioners and scholars
 - Collaboration with professional organizations that promote and advocate for family and systems theory and practice
 - Active promotion of a systemic approach to social justice issues
